Condition or Requirement

An applicant or recipient must also cooperate in establishing the paternity of any eligible child and in obtaining medical support and payments for himself or herself and any other person who is eligible for Medicaid and on whose behalf the individual can make an assignment; except that individuals described in §1902(1)(1)(A) of the Social Security Act (pregnant women and women in the post-partum period) are exempt from these requirements involving paternity and obtaining support. Any individual may be exempt from the cooperation requirements by demonstrating good cause for refusing to cooperate.

An applicant or recipient must also cooperate in identifying any third party who may be liable to pay for care that is covered under the State plan and providing information to assist in pursuing these third parties. Any individual may be exempt from the cooperation requirements by demonstrating good cause for refusing to cooperate.

XX Assignment of rights is automatic because of State law.

42 CFR 435.910

7. Is required, as a condition of eligibility, to furnish his/her social security account number (or numbers, if he/she has more than one number) except for aliens seeking medical assistance for the treatment of an emergency medical condition under section 1903(v)(2) of the Social Security Act (section 1137(f)).

Supplement 12 to Attachment 2.6-A describes the greater need; describes the basis or formula for determining the deductible amount when a specific amount is not listed above; lists the criteria to be met; and, where appropriate, identifies the organizational unit which determines that a criterion is met.

1924 of the Act

3. In addition to the amounts under item 2., the following monthly amounts are deducted from the remaining income of an institutionalized individual with a community spouse:
- a. The monthly income allowance for the community spouse, calculated using the formula in § 1924(d)(2), is the amount by which the maintenance needs standard exceeds the community spouse's income. The maintenance needs standard cannot exceed the maximum prescribed in § 1924 (d)(3)(C). The maintenance needs standard consists of a poverty level component plus an excess shelter allowance.

_____ The poverty level component is calculated using the applicable percentage (set out § 1924 (d)(3)(B) of the Act) of the official poverty level.

_____ The poverty level component is calculated using a percentage greater than the applicable percentage, equal to _____%, of the official poverty level (still subject to maximum maintenance needs standard).

 X The maintenance needs standard for all community spouses is set at the maximum permitted by § 1924(d)(3)(C).

Except that, when applicable, the State will set the community spouse's monthly income allowance at the amount by which exceptional maintenance needs, established at a fair hearing, exceed the community spouse's income, or at the amount of any court-ordered support.

State: ALASKA

42 CFR 435.732, 435.831	4. Handling of Excess Income - Spend-down for the Medically Needy in All States and the Categorically Needy in 1902(f) States Only

a. Medically Needy

Income in excess of the MNIL is considered as available for payment of medical care and services. The Medicaid agency measures available income for periods of either _____ or _____ month(s) (not to exceed 6 months) to determine the amount of excess countable income applicable to the cost of medical care and services.

If countable income exceeds the MNIL standard, the agency deducts the following incurred expenses in the following order:

- (a) Health insurance premiums, deductibles and coinsurance charges.
- (b) Expenses for necessary medical and remedial care not included in the plan.
- (c) Expenses for necessary medical and remedial care included in the plan.

Reasonable limits on amounts of expenses deducted from income under a.(2)(a) and (b) above are listed below.

1902(a)(17) of the Act

Incurred expenses that are subject to payment by a third party are not deducted unless the expenses are subject to payment by a third party that is a publicly funded program (other than Medicaid) of a State or local government.
